

General Guidelines for Review Board Members/Peer Reviewers

1. To review if the manuscript adheres to the following:
 - a. 'Guidelines to Authors for Submission' of the Indian Journal of Occupational Therapy (Version: December, 2016). These guidelines are available on the AIOTA website.
 - b. The latest Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing, and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals, updated in December 2016, by ICMJE. See the link: <http://www.icmje.org/icmje-recommendations.pdf>
 - c. Reporting guidelines with respect to the study design of the manuscript, (e.g.) CONSORT (www.consort-statement.org) for randomized controlled trials.
 - d. Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) guidelines for authors.
2. Peer Reviewers should adhere to COPE - Ethical Guidelines for Peer Reviewers. See the link: http://publicationethics.org/files/Peer%20review%20guidelines_0.pdf
3. Peer Reviewers should sign and abide by the Confidentiality Agreement for their tenure of review period from April, 2016 to March, 2020.
4. Peer Reviewers are expected to adhere to the timeline provided by the editors for reviewing each manuscript. In case they cannot do so, they should convey to the associate editor/editor their unavailability for the said manuscript review period.
5. Peer Reviewers are welcome to offer expert opinions on improvising the policies of the Indian Journal of Occupational Therapy for generating quality publications and dissemination of good research work by fellow occupational therapy professionals.
